IAPMO R&T Names New Management System Registration Manager

ONTARIO, CA (May 4, 2007) — In its continued effort to provide the most comprehensive services to the plumbing and mechanical industries, IAPMO Research and Testing (R&T) has named Shirley Dewi as its new management system registration manager.

Dewi will head the company's Management System Registration Services department, overseeing the audit program and expanding the department's available services. Prior to joining R&T, Dewi served as a quality assurance manager with Bericap North America and Accu-Sembly, Inc., and also has extensive experience as a quality management systems auditor and consultant. With a successful background in the manufacturing industry, she brings a broad range of knowledge and expertise to IAPMO R&T.

"I'm excited to develop R&T's reach in the area of quality management system certification," said Dewi. "We've already begun implementing strategies designed to help exceed our goals."

Dewi plans to introduce more accreditation services and establish partnerships with training companies in order to better serve the diverse needs of R&T clients.

"I'm very pleased to have Shirley on our team," said Shahin Moinian, senior director of IAPMO R&T. "Her experience and skills are quite impressive. I'm confident that our clients will benefit from R&T's expanded registration services."
