IAPMO R&T Offers Support for Manufacturers at Standards Meetings

ONTARIO, CA (July 11, 2007) — Tired of running into walls during standard development meetings? Delays in dealing with industry standards can often slow the time it takes to get your product to market. IAPMO R&T, a leader in plumbing and mechanical product certification, understands manufacturers' frustrations and is here to help.

As part of its continued commitment to helping manufacturers get their products certified faster and with greater ease, IAPMO R&T offers support to plumbing and mechanical product manufacturers at standards meetings. With a 98% customer satisfaction rating, IAPMO R&T has earned its reputation as one of North America's foremost plumbing and mechanical listing agencies by working closely with manufacturers and helping them negotiate the complex product certification process.

"We understand manufacturers' distinct needs and are happy to support industry positions with regard to product standards," said Shahin Moinian, senior director of IAPMO R&T. "We welcome manufacturers to approach us for help — our expert staff will gladly make themselves available to attend standards meetings to help you defend an industry position."

Manufacturers can request this valuable free service simply by contacting Maribel Campos at (909) 472-4106 or maribel.campos@iapmort.org. For more information on this and other services provided by IAPMO R&T, please visit www.iapmo.org.
